Williamson County Public Library is pleased to highlight our local authors in an online author biography and bibliography hosted on our library website. So that we may include your work in this special collection, the library requests that you autograph and donate a copy or copies of your book to the Williamson County Public Library's Local Author Collection. Your book will be labeled with a metallic gold seal denoting "Local Author," and will be added to our circulating Local Authors' Collection. Local Author books will also be identified in our online catalog.

If you would like to be included in our online biography/bibliography listing of local Williamson County authors, please complete the questionnaire below and return by mail or email. If you are including a photograph, please send a digital copy by email (address above).
