

The Friends is a volunteer, non-profit group dedicated to enhancing and improving library services for our community. Friends' contributions, fundraising activities, and volunteer efforts support adult and youth programs, maintain and increase collections, and provide new technologies, equipment and other improvements.

Join the Friends, support the Library and help us grow! Please legibly complete the information below and send with your check to the address at the bottom of this form. You may also drop the form and your payment off at the main library circulation desk. Please do not send cash through the mail.
